

MAR SÁNCHEZ GUITAR

Guitarist

PROFILE

Her guitar interpretation combines classical and electric guitar with the music of our times.

Mar approaches music from different perspectives and musical concepts. She studies the guitar in-depth, respecting and considering all the resources that this instrument has to offer. She performs her own music, as well as being an accompanist, soloist, and bandleader.

She has great versatility of musical genres, styles, and projects. Her original compositions are a manifestation of her personal vision of the guitar and her passion for music from around the world.
